‘Gurur Brahma Gurur Vishnu Gurur Devo Maheswara
Gurur Saakshat Parahbrahma Thasmai Sree Gurave Namah’ with this prayer in my mind, let me express my gratitude to the God Almighty for enabling me to complete my thesis.

I owe a debt of gratitude to my teachers, parents and friends for their support and prayer to complete my research work.

First and foremost I would like to thank my supervisor Dr.A.Vijayakumar, Professor, Department of Mathematics, Cochin University of Science and Technology for the patient guidance, encouragement and advice he has provided throughout my time as his student. His positive outlook and confidence in my research inspired me and gave me confidence. I consider myself very fortunate for being able to work with a very considerate and encouraging professor like him. No words of acknowledgement would be adequate to fully express my gratitude and I shall remain indebted to him for ever.

I am grateful to Prof.P.G.Romeo, Prof.A.Krishnamoorthy, Prof.M.N.N.Nampoothiri, Prof.B.Lakshmy, Prof.R.S.Chakravarti, Prof.M.Jathavedan, and Prof.M.K.Ganapathi for their help and encouragement to complete this study successfully. I would like to thank the current and former office staff and librarian of the Department of Mathematics for their support and help of various kinds. My gratitude also goes to the authorities of Cochin University of Science and Technology for awarding a Junior Research Fellowship during the initial stage of my work. I also thank the PURSE programme of Department of Science and Technology, Government of India for awarding a research fellowship.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Manju K. Menon, St. Paul’s College, Kalamassery, India for introducing me the notion of the diameter variability and related topics and also for permitting to include our joint work in this thesis.

I wish to express my gratitude to Dr. Daniela Ferrero, Texas State University, USA, who had visited CUSAT during November 2009, under the ‘ERUDITE’ programme of the Government of Kerala, for the discussion and valuable suggestions given by her at the beginning of my research work. I am also very grateful to Prof. Sandi Klavžar, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia for his insightful ideas and suggestions during my research work.

I am lucky enough to have the support and encouragement of my good fellow researchers. I thank all my Graph Theory friends Dr. B. Radhakrishnan, Dr. K.S. Parvathy, Dr. G. Indulal, Ms. Savitha K.S, Dr. Aparna, Dr. Seema Varghese, Mr. Pravas K., Ms. Anu Varghese, Mr. Tijo and Ms. Seethu for their fruitful discussions and constant encouragement. I wish to express my thanks to my fellow researchers Dr. Varghese Jacob, Dr. Pramod, Dr. Kirankumar, Dr. Sreenivasan, Ms. Deepthi C., Mr. Jayaprasad, Mr. Tonny, Mr. Didimos, Mr. Balesh, Mr. Manikandan, Ms. Raji, Ms. Pami, Ms. Anusha, Ms. Dhanya, and Ms. Akhila for their inspiration.
I would like to thank my Parents - in - law, Mr.Babu and Mrs.Vasanthakumari and brother - in - law Mr.Nakul for encouraging me to finish this piece of work.

I wish to thank my parents, Mr.Mohandas and Ms.Retnabai. Their love and inspiration is my driving force. It is their encouragement and support from the very beginning of my life that made it possible for me to reach this stage. Many thanks to my brother Mr.Amal for his support and being a true brother when needed.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the most important persons in my life - my husband Mr.Naveen and my daughter Navmi. They have made many sacrifices so that I could pursue my dream. Naveen has been a constant source of strength and inspiration. His love and confidence in me and Navmi’s smile made this thesis a reality.
