Part-I

Directions: A number of controversial statements or questions with two alternative answers are given below. Indicate your personal preferences (liking) by writing appropriate figures in the brackets to the right of each question. Some of the alternatives may appear equally attractive or unattractive to you. Nevertheless, please try to choose the alternative that is relatively more acceptable to you. For each question you have three points that you may distribute in any of the following combinations.

1. If you agree with the alternative (a) and disagree with (b), write 3 in the bracket against ‘a’ and 0 in the bracket against ‘b’ ...
   \[ (3) \quad (0) \]

2. If you agree with (b) and disagree with (a), write (0) \[ (3) \]

3. If you have a slight preference for (a) over (b), write (2) \[ (1) \]

4. If you have a slight preference for (b) over (a), write (1) \[ (2) \]

Do not write any combination of numbers except one of these four. There is no right or wrong answer. It is purely a question of your liking. There is no time limit, but do not linger on any one question of statement. Please do not leave out any question.
